Prohibition Officers Determined That Responsible Persons Shall Suffer.

Special Despatch to THE NEW YORK HEMALI New York Herald Bureau. | Washington, D. C., May 10.

vinces the United States Government that Americans and their interests in Mexico have continuing safeguards.

In a general way it was indicated the road to recognition pointed out in a letter former Secretary of State Colby handed to Roberto V. Pesqueira, confidential agent of Provisional President de la Huerta of Mexico, is still the road to be followed. That letter followed in character the recommendations of the raport made by a Senate sub-committee of which Secretary Fall was chairman.

The Wilson Administration is known to have indorsed the position of the Senate sub-committee that the promises demanded of Mexico should be incorporated in a protocol. The present Administration, it is understood, may not insist upon the signing of such protocol, but will insist on some reassuring action, and it is determined that until the initiative is taken by Mexico recognition will be withheld.

Distillery in Palestine, Brewery in Jerusalem

CHICAGO, May 10 .- Methodist CHICAGO, May 10.—Methodist ministers at their meeting yesterday at First Church were startled when Dr. Caleb W. Saleeby, English prohibitionist, said: "A whiskey distillery is established on Mount Hermon, Palestine, and a brewery in Jerusalem."

band, in one of which Mr. Mahon is importuned to "hurry up and make a bank roil." Mrs. Mahon alleges he makes $15,000 a year now. She recites also that she found in her home one day a package intended for "Florence," which contained a silk nightgown and a note signed "A million hugs and kisses, yours, Richard," which expressed the "hope to see you in it soon." She took the gown back to the store it came from and got $10, she alleges, which she invested in shoes for the little one.

Justice Tierney granted her $15 a week alitnony and $200 counsel fees pending the outcome of the case.

Supreme Court Justice Tierney granted yesterdayan increase of afimony from $25 to $75 a week upon the request of Mrs. Josephine Park Tearle, former wife of Conway Tearle, movie actor. She had asked for an increase to $500 a week, saying her divorced husband is now earning $1,750 a week. She originally was awarded $65 a week, but this was reduced to $25 when her husband's engagements brought about a lessened income.

WORTH MORE THAN WE GET

It is common to hear a man say he is worth what he's getting; yet if a man isn't worth more than he's getting he is a poor investment for his employer.

It's the same with Contractors, too!

DOES TIME MEAN MONEY?

NOTunless it is profitably used. When a man gives time to work which can be handled as competently by another, at less expense, he receives only a fraction of what his time is

TO many men and women whose time is of value, I our "custodian service" has meant freedom from petty cares, release of time and energy for more important matters-and more wise and careful handling of their securities.

PROHIBITION Actors Complain

Since the advent of prohibition, there have been many complaints on the part of comedians and actors against this new law. In the old days, before prohibition, audiences came to the theatre in mellow mood, stimulated and exhilarated by cocktails and champagne, served with dinner. Under the gentle stimulating effects of these pleasing concoctions, audiences laughed and roared in approval at almost every comic quip and joke.

But now all is changed. Audiences now are sober, sedate, stolid, silent. The best jokes in the world—jokes which have never failed heretofore to win laughter—are now thrown over the footlights in vain. Silence greets all such jests. The actors work harder and harder, in an effort to win the approval of such audiences, but they admit that because of prohibition, their task is nightly becoming more and more difficult.

It is a matter of record on Broadway, that many plays, which in ordinary times would have succeeded, have failed under the direful effects of prohibition. Naturally the actors are grieved and annoyed that their efforts go for naught.

But—

There is one show in New York that can be enjoyed to the ut-

But—
There is one show in New York that can be enjoyed to the utmost without the artificial stimulus of bygone days. You don't need cocktails or champagne to appreciate the wonderful beauty and the gorgeous gloriousness of the great William Foxsuper-screen spectacle "The Queen of Sheba," now being presented twice daily at the Lyric Theatre. Here in 671 magnificent scenes, presented by a cast which at times includes more than ten thousand people, you can see the most amazing of modern screen spectacles. You will be impressed by its magnitude, you will adore the loveromance of the great King Solomon and the Queen of Sheba, and you will see unfolded before your eyes, a picturization of the gorgeous Orient of three thousand years ago, when the most beautiful queen the world has ever known won the heart of the wisest of kings.
